

PROCESS TO RECEIVE SERVICES THROUGH AUTISM SOCIETY OF NORTH CAROLINA OR TEACCH®

(Necessary to be a LiNC-IT Participant)

FILL OUT A LiNC-IT APPLICATION

After that, you will be connected with a counselor from ASNC or TEACCH®, who will help with the next steps. Those organizations can help fast track the process.

AUTISM SPECTRUM DISORDER (ASD)

One needs an official ASD diagnosis to be a LiNC-IT participant. Employment and Independence for People with Disabilities (EIPD) and TEACCH® can potentially help one get a diagnosis.

EMPLOYMENT AND INDEPENDENCE FOR PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES (EIPD)***

Call your local EIPD office, and indicate your interest in employment through LiNC-IT. To find your local office click here. To learn more about EIPD click here.

CONTINUE EIPD PROCESS

Your EIPD counselor will meet with you a few times and determine your eligibility for services. If you are eligible, you and your EIPD counselor will develop your Individualized Plan for Employment.

5

CONNECTION TO ASNC OR TEACCH®

Your Individualized Plan for Employment will likely include a referral to ASNC or TEACCH®.

MEET WITH YOUR JOB COACH

They can help you with your resume, practice interviewing, and identifying potential jobs from employers who are not a part of LiNC-IT. They also provide support once you start employment.

6

LiNC-IT PARTNERSHIP JOB OPPORTUNITIES

If an employer contacts LiNC-IT about a relevant employment or internship opportunity, your resume may be submitted. You may be invited to interview for the position.

*Employment and Independence for People with Disabilities was formally known as Vocational Rehabilitation.
